The screenshot shows a Windows Internet Explorer browser window displaying a news article on the CyberShack website. The browser's address bar shows the URL <http://www.cybershack.com/news/trio-grundig-digital-radios-released>. The page features a navigation menu with links for Home, Videos, News, Games, Reviews, and CyberShack TV. The main article is titled "Trio of Grundig Digital Radios Released" and includes a sub-headline: "Trio range of Grundig radios allows you myriad of configurations for set up." The article is dated "Posted: 01 Feb 2011" and has tags for "News", "au", "Grundig", "Grundig trio", and "Grundig Trio Touch". A large image shows a black Grundig digital radio with a smartphone resting on top. The article text highlights features such as "World's first APiG DAB+ Slideshow function", "20 station presets", and "Detachable speakers". It also mentions that the Grundig new Trio Series includes the Trio and Trio Touch DAB+ Micro Systems, which can be configured in one, two, or three pieces. A quote from Brian Rodgers, Sales Director at Grundig Australia, is included. The page also features a sidebar with a "payclick by Visa" advertisement, a "Login Sign Up" section, and a "Popular News Articles" section with a link to "Trio of Grundig Digital Radios...". The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows several open applications, including Microsoft Office, Microsoft Excel, and Internet Explorer, along with the system clock showing 2:00 PM.
